

I'm writing to express my alarm and displeasure at the NAB's attempt to restrict XM Radio's ability and right to broadcast local traffic and weather information. I pay for their service and they have the right to offer, and I have the right to purchase, their local traffic and weather info. I hope you will not succumb to the pressure of NAB and its members.

Michael Gallagher